

Operating and Safety Instructions*ANGLE GRINDER - Electric*USES Grinding steel, concrete, also may be used for cutting masonry and steelPRE CHECK

Have correct grinder and accessories for job
Accessory is firmly secured
Have correct spanners to change accessory
Ensure all guards are in place.

STARTING

Plug machine into power source
Pull trigger

OPERATION

Always hold machine firmly with both hands
If fitted with trigger lock this may be engaged this may be locked by depressing lock button

STOPPING

Release trigger

SAFETY PRECAUTIONS AND EQUIPMENT

Do not use in wet areas or conditions. Do not change blades with machine connected.
Ensure it is the right blade for the job and that it is fitted correctly.
Keep the worksite clear of debris and people.
Always use a residual current device (RCD) or transformer.
Do not use in flammable or explosive areas.
Do not use broken or damaged blades.
Do not carry the tool by the cord.
Do not attempt repairs.

Personal Safety Equipment: Goggles, gloves, earmuffs, dust masks, hard hats for overhead work

HAZARDS

Electric cables, gas lines, loose clothing and accessories.
Overhead cutting and grinding.
Long hair.
Cement fibre sheets.

Personal Protective Equipment